

Astronaut

An individual who serves on a spaceflight program or mission. The individual may command, pilot or be a contributing member of the flight crew. Astronauts have solid flight experience and have bachelor degrees in the following areas of study, engineering, biological science, physical science and mathematics.